Celebrations In Alabama Were Particularly Elaborate-Day Observed as Legal Holiday.

(Herald Special.)

Richmond, Va., Jan. 19.-The one hundred and third anniversary of the birth of General Robert E. Lee was celebrated throughout the south today. In Virginia as well as in Florida, Georgia, North and South Carolina, Alabama and Arkansas the day is observed as a legal holiday. Business was practically suspended in many cities and the schools were opened only in the morning to allow commemoration exercises to be held.

Particularly elaborate were the celebrations in Alabama, where the Confederates established their first capital. The Confederate Veterans and Daughters of the Confederacy conducted the memorial exercises.

In Georgia. (Herald Special.)

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 19.-Gen, Lee's birthday was generally observed throughout the state today and many societies in this city held commemorative services with music, speeches and singing of old Confederate songs.
